

Job Title: Campus Pastor
Reports to: Senior Pastor
Church: The Road Community Church
Location: Howell, MI

Summary of The Road Community Church:

The Road Community Church is a church that started back in 2004 as The Faith Journey church plant in Howell, Michigan. In 2010 Horizon Church was planted in Fenton, Michigan. Two years later, in 2012, the Faith Journey in Howell officially merged with Horizon Church in Fenton to become one church with one pastor in two campuses, changing the name to The Road Community Church.

At present, The Road Community Church is working to give each campus their own unique pastor, and individual budgets, but will remain as one church. The Howell campus is looking for a pastor to lead and shepherd the congregation, under the advisement of the Senior Pastor who will remain the pastor of the Fenton Campus. The leadership is to be held between the Senior Pastor, Campus Pastor, and a plurality of elders. Currently, the two pastors are the only paid positions.

The Road is a non-denominational church currently affiliated with Converge MidAmerica. The campus is in a country setting on 9 acres close to the city of Howell. The area offers many amenities and is in a developing area.

The church's worship style is contemporary and communion is currently held once a month as a commemoration of Jesus's death and sacrifice. The church congregation meeting on Sundays is typically 30-40 people. This church body is gracious, authentic, and loving. The people are generous and are committed to following God's word. There is a true feeling of family and unification between everyone.

The Road Community Church is looking for a pastor to lead this small congregation into deeper relationships with each other and greater spiritual maturity. The church is open to a fresh vision for ministry and organization.
